Article I - Club Mission Statement

Article II - Membership

The NAF is an equal-opportunity fan club open to all ages. It is our policy not to tolerate discrimination based on sex, race, nationality, or religion.

NAF membership is currently attainable through our website and in person at most NAF sanctioned tournaments.

Article III - Club Organization and Offices

The NAF is arranged much like a traditional organization, with specialization in certain areas to meet the needs of an international club.

Officer positions within the club are divided into two groups: Administration Level and Specialized Level. The Administration Level consists of the traditional club positions: President, Vice-President, and Treasurer. Specialized Officer Positions are those that have been created at the behest of the Club President to enhance and/or fulfill a specific need within the club's officer program. However, unlike the Administrative Level positions, Specialized Officer Positions do not require an amendment of the Club Charter, and shall not be permanent in the sense that they can be removed at the behest of the Club President if no longer needed. ### Officer Elections

Simple Majority (via Internet)

Officer Election Guidelines:

Officer Elections shall adhere to the following guidelines:

Elections shall take place every two years.

Members who wish to run for a club officer position must, at the time of elections, be nominated by a fellow club member. A member may nominate only one other member per position/office for any given election. Members can be nominated for multiple offices during any election.

In the event a member is elected to two offices, that member shall choose a position and the remaining position(s) will go to the runner(s) up in that election.

However, members may not hold more than one Administrative office.

In the event of a tie, a run-off election will be held for that office. Date of run-off election shall be determined by the NAF President.

Special Level Officer positions may be occupied by any member appointed by the NAF President – whether currently holding an office or not.

Elected offices are held from the date of officer inauguration for two year. Date of officer inauguration shall be determined by the NAF President.

Elections shall take place via the internet.

The NAF President shall set deadlines and voting methods for elections.

The NAF President can be removed from office by a majority vote of the Specialized Level Officers. The Vice President will immediately take over the powers of NAF President and must immediately appoint a new Vice President whom may not be the previous NAF President.

Article V - Code of Conduct

Members of the NAF shall adhere to the following guidelines during any time they are representing the club to the public. Public is defined as our online and in-person presence:

Harassment of any type, whether online or in-person, is strictly forbidden and may result in expulsion from the club if a claim is presented and verified, by a club officer and authorized by the NAF President.

Discrimination on the basis of race, gender, or religion is strictly forbidden, and will result in expulsion from the club and, if necessary, prosecution by local/state law.

Excessive use of foul language or lewd behavior shall result in removal from events or meetings by any club officer.

Underage Member Policy:

The NAF is a club for all ages. With this in mind, however, we feel that every parent/legal guardian of our underage members (under 18 years of age) should be aware of some important issues before allowing their child/young adult/minor to participate in any events or meetings:

No one will be supervising minors. While it is never our intention of letting a minor get into trouble at events or meetings, the responsibility for their actions lies with the parent/legal guardian.

Alcohol will never be served to your minor by our fan club. However, meetings sometimes take place in venues where alcohol is served. Adult members of legal age may be drinking alcohol during meetings and social events.

The group attempts to maintain all discussions at the PG level. However, some inappropriate language and/or suggestive themes beyond the PG limitations may be used at events and meetings.

We will not be responsible for transporting your minor to or from meetings or social events. If you do not attend the event or meeting with your minor, please be sure your minor has a safe mode of transportation.

We encourage parents/ legal guardians to get involved. We would like parents/ legal guardians to get to know our members, thus we encourage your to attend and participate in any of our events or meetings. We also encourage parents/legal guardians to monitor their minor's activities on our online website.

Expulsion of Members:

While it is hoped that no member must be expelled from the club, it is prudent to have measures in place should the need arise. If any member of the club feels that another member should be expelled, that person may approach any of the club's officers inperson with his/her complaint. At that time, the officers will meet via online or in-person means to determine the best course of action. Conduct which justifies expulsion:

Engaging in any illegal activity while attending a club function
Threatening another member with physical violence
Committing physical violence against another member
Harassing or stalking another member via e-mail, internet, phone, or written letter

Repeated unwanted sexual advances toward another member Any conduct deemed by the club officers as a justified grounds for expulsion

In addition, the club President may expel any member at any time for any or no reason by making a public announcement of his intention and refunding all of the member's current and previous dues.
